"3,000,000 TRAINED MEN BEST PEACE SOCIETY"

Secretary of Army League Urges System of Universal Military Service.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The most influential peace society this nation could organize would be 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 young men under universal military service, Secretary George Hewitt Myers of the Army League declared to-day.

"The strongest influence for honorable peace," he continued, "would be a system of universal military service. Under our present volunteer system, everybody outside the regular army and the National Guard expects the other fellow to go whenever there is any danger of this country being plunged into war."

"The average man either says openly or thinks that there will be plenty of men of a venturesome spirit to fill up an army. With this idea in mind, it has been frequently declared that we could raise a million men between sunset and sundown if the country was threatened."

"But this does not prevent men of Anglo proclivities from demanding that we rush into war often without a just cause."

Imports and Exports Larger by Millions Than in 1915.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 21.—Increases of more than four million dollars in imports and nearly six millions in exports are shown in a statement of the foreign business of the colony. Newfoundland for the fiscal year ended on June 30 last, made public to-day. Total imports were $16,427,326, exports $18,969,493, as against $12,359,786 and $17,106,880 respectively for the previous year. Imports from America amounted to $7,097,779 and exports to America $2,540,000, both representing large increases. Inability to obtain many articles from Great Britain diverted a large part of the trade to America.
